

Kay Biga is expanding her role at the Spott Law Office. She recently completed twenty years of service at UW-Superior, retiring as an Associate Professor of Management and Business Law. Although she will miss working with students, Kay is excited to spend more time working with the clients at the Spott Law Office

Biga is also a Rule 114 Qualified Neutral Mediator and is available to provide mediation services in both business and family matters.