

Attorneys Kay Biga and Pat Spott will present “Lessons Learned While Building Our Small Firm Practice” at the Solo and Small Firm Conference in Duluth. They will cover marketing, technology, financial and customer service ideas.

In addition, Spott will also sit on a panel to discuss “Money Matters” and Biga will present “Marketing Magic.”

Biga and Spott are frequent presenters at this annual continuing legal education conference.