

Spott Law Office sponsors a team in The Salvation Army Rookie Basketball Association . This youth sports program, which has been operated by The Salvation Army for over 20 years, provides boys and girls in grades 1-6 an opportunity to learn the basics of basketball, sportsmanship, fair play, and good citizenship. 500-700 children participate each year. 15% of participants come from low-income families and participate free of charge through scholarships provided by

The Salvation Army

. All three children of Spott Law Office founders

Patrick Spott

and

Kay Biga

played in the league.