

Attorney Patrick Spott is teaching two courses during the Spring Semester 2011 at the University of Wisconsin Superior

. These courses are part of the legal studies program and are entitled Paralegalism and Ethics and Contract Law. Spott is an adjunct professor at UWS and has taught a large number of law related courses both on line and live, including Administrative Law, Law Office Management, Family Law, Wills, Trusts and Estate Administration, and Debtor Rights/Creditor Remedies. Spott designed and taught the first on line courses offered by the legal studies department at UWS.