

The Spott Law Office is a law firm founded by attorneys Patrick Spott and Kay Biga .

A nine time SuperLawyer , past law review editor and honors law graduate, Patrick Spott utilizes his strong legal mind and sound analytical skills to provide general legal representation, including global, strategic business advice and legal counsel, to business owners and professionals.

The firm's clients also benefit from Kay Biga's extensive business background, which she utilizes to help clients understand the professional and business implications of legal decisions.

With the knowledge that strong business relationships are key to future endeavors, both Pat and Kay focus on non-traditional methods of problem solving when possible, working as mediators to bring parties to resolution outside of the courtroom.

Though a small firm at present, attorney Pat Spott's long-standing reputation and vast legal connections means the Spott Law Office has the resources necessary to quickly bring in personnel in the event a large-scale case demands it. At present the Spott Law Office employs several seasoned paralegals to assist Pat and Kay in providing the highest level of quality personal representation.

Easily accessible with plenty of parking, the firm is located on the first floor of historic 2228 East Superior Street. To learn more about our attorneys, visit their attorney profiles . For additional information regarding how we can assist you, please contact us now.
